

Our personnel at SF Security (Incorporating SF International) are made up of former Special Forces (SAS) members and respected security professionals from various civilian specialized backgrounds , SF International are dedicated to providing you and your organisation with the finest training available in the fields of counter terrorist awareness and corporate team building, empowering your staff, and ultimately your organisation, with the ability to compete more effectively in today's highly competitive, and politically charged environment.